Following the overwhelming success of our 50th season and we are delighted to present six concerts for our 51st. We open the season with the Doric String Quartet. Firmly established as one of the leading quartets of its generation, the Quartet now performs in concert halls around the world including Carnegie Hall, Amsterdam Concertgebouw and Vienna Konzerthaus, and is a regular visitor to Wigmore Hall. A programme of Mozart, Britten and Beethoven culminates in the late, great Quartet in B flat, including the monumental Grosse Fugue.

Next we have internationally acclaimed violinist and Classical Brit winner Jack Liebeck, whose "playing is virtually flawless in its technical ease, with scintillating articulateness and purity of tone" (Gramophone). Jack will be joined at the piano by our Artistic Director William Vann in a thrilling programme that includes Brahms's enduringly popular G major sonata, Mozart, Schumann, Fauré and Kreisler.

2020 begins with an intimate recital of songs for voice and lute. Soprano Julia Doyle specialises in Baroque repertoire and has put together an attractive programme of music by Purcell, Monteverdi, Strozzi, Caccini and Merula with the famous English lutenist Matthew Wadsworth, who enthralled us when he played at the Bunyan Meeting in January 2015.

Italian guitarist Giacomo Susani won first prize at the London International Guitar Competition in 2016 and studies at the Royal Academy of Music with the support of the prestigious Julian Bream Trust Scholarship, awarded by legendary guitarist Julian Bream himself. His recital includes music by his fellow countrymen Frescobaldi and Scarlatti alongside some of his own work. This concert is supported by the Countess of Munster Musical Trust.

Aged 18, Ben Goldscheider reached the Final of the 2016 BBC Young Musician Competition. Since then, he has performed at venues including the Berlin Philharmonie and London's Royal Albert Hall, where he made his BBC Proms Debut in 2018. Ben was recently selected as BBC Music Magazine's "Rising Star" and Gramophone's "One to Watch". His trio with Callum Smart (violin) and Richard Uttley (piano) will perform a superb programme of Haydn, Huw Watkins, Mozart and Brahms.

To conclude another outstanding series, we welcome pianist Steven Osborne. Steven is one of Britain's most treasured musicians whose insightful and idiomatic interpretations of diverse repertoire show an immense musical depth. His numerous awards include The Royal Philharmonic Society Instrumentalist of the Year and two Gramophone Awards. His programme brings together some of the finest works by two giants of the keyboard: Schubert and Rachmaninov.
